WELCOME

Barcelona welcomes you as the host city of the EPNS Congress 2027.

Recognized as a global hub for scientific exchange, over the past decade, it has emerged as a leading city in neuroscience research, driven by a vibrant academic community, world-class hospitals, and a strong commitment to pediatric neurology.

With its modern infrastructure, excellent international connectivity, and mediterranean charm, Barcelona offers an inspiring setting that fosters innovation and collaboration. Join us in bringing together international experts in pediatric neurology within this exceptional setting.
